Forecast For East of England
Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 1600 on Monday 15 Mar 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Rain developing across the region overnight. Murky day Tuesday.

This Evening and Tonight:
A dry but increasingly cloudy start to the evening, with low cloud pushing eastwards. Cloud then sweeping across all parts through the early hours, with light rain or drizzle reaching all parts of the region by dawn. Minimum temperature 4 deg C (39 deg F).

Tuesday:
Widespread low cloud with further rain and drizzle through much of the day. Drier and brighter spells possible in far west later, but turning breezy. Maximum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Dry and bright with sunny spells Wednesday. Early rain clearing Thursday morning, turning colder and breezier with a risk of showers. Bright but rather cold Friday, with further showers possible.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.